WOMAN'S REAL RIGHTS.

Jesuits have a maxim that there is no greater enemy to religion than an over-pions fool. Neither is there a greater enemy to humanity than your over-mandlin humanitarian. We feel an abiding conviction that, with, we are willing to believe, the most amiable intentions, few men have done more mischief than our white-coated friend and philosopher, Horace Greeley & Co., by encouraging Fourierism. free-loveism, woman's rightisms, and all those other isms of which the Me-Farland and the many cases that every hour come up of the wild justice of revenge for domestic wrong are the welfare of our country. Grant is either in variety, quality or price. of revenge for domestic wrong are the natural spawn. Scratch any of these cases and you are sure to find some President. cases and you are sure to find some Tribune man underneath. Indeed, Hornce himself seems gradually coming to this conviction. How to Save Money.

THE times are hard; you'd like to know How you may save your dellars; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not fer from hers, Who worked hard at his trade, But had a household to support That squandered all he made.

I met him onne. Saya he, "My friend, I look thread bear and raugh; I've tried to gut uspell a suit, But can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you? I'll tell you where to go To get a soit that's sound and cheap : To REIRENSTEIN & Co.

He took what Bittle he had saved, And went to Reizenstein & Brothers', And there he got a handsome suit, For helf he paid to others. Now he is home, he looks so well, And their effect is such. That when they take their duity meal, They den't eat half as much.

And now he finds on Saturday night, With all their wants supplied. That he has money laft to spend, And some to lay uside. His good scoons, with cheerful smile, He giadly tells to all. If you'd rave money, go and buy Your clothen at-
